

Changing cancer care together

HOSTED BY LIEVE WIERINCK MEP

30 January 2018, 12:00–14:30

Members' Salon, European Parliament

MEPs AGAINST CANCER Seminar

Improving outcomes, driving efficiency in cancer care: How do we learn from best practice?

In collaboration with:

Schedule for the lunch seminar

12:00–12:10 First course is served

12:10–12:25 Welcome, aims and objectives Lieve Wierinck MEP

12:25–12:35 Brief introduction about MAC Sakari Karjalainen,
Association of European Cancer Leagues

12:35–12:50 Improving outcomes, driving efficiency in cancer care – the key issues for policymakers Suzanne Wait,
All.Can

12:50–13:10 How can this be done across the cancer care pathway? Examples of best practice from different countries and perspectives Lydia Makaroff,
European Cancer Patient Coalition (ECPC)

13:10–13:20 First course is cleared, main course is served

13:20–13:40 The ECCO paper on access to innovation: focusing on what makes the greatest difference to patients Ian Banks,
European CanCer Organisation (ECCO)

13:40–14:20 Round-table discussion: How can we amplify best practice examples across Europe – what is the role for the EU and Member States? Moderated by Lydia Makaroff, ECPC
Panel: Amadou Diarra, Bristol-Myers Squibb; Herb Riband, Amgen; Ian Banks, ECCO; Commission representative (TBC); Pascal Garel, European Hospital and Healthcare Federation (HOPE); Rosna Mortuza, International Consortium for Health Outcomes Measurement

14:20–14:30 Policy response and conclusions Lieve Wierinck MEP

