

EARLY DIAGNOSIS - 5 THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

First WP5 iPAAC Conference - Hosted by the National Institute of Oncology

Monday, 20 May 2019 - National Institute of Oncology
NIO, Building 3, Rath György u. 7-9, Budapest, Hungary

AGENDA

08:30 - 09:00	Registration and coffee
09:00 - 09:30	Welcome remarks Prof. Dr. Csaba Polgár, National Institute of Oncology, Director General ECL Welcome Mr Rozványi Balázs, Hungarian Cancer League, President
09:30 - 09:50	Introduction to iPAAC by Dr. Tit Albreht, iPAAC Scientific Coordinator
09:50 - 10:10	Prevention and early detection of oral cancers in Hungary, challenges and future plans by Dr. Eva Remenár, National Institute of Oncology
10:10 - 10:30	Social inequalities and early diagnosis by Dr. Ana Molina, FISABIO
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee break
11:00 - 11:15	Barriers in early diagnosis - Presentation of the survey results by Dr. Clarissa Bingham, Cancer Society of Finland
11:15 - 11:30	Introduction to group work by Ms Satu Lipponen and Dr Ahti Anttila, Cancer Society of Finland
11:30 - 12:30	Barriers, cancer type and inequality - First round of group work
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 - 14:00	Early detection and cancer burden in Europe by Dr. Isabelle Soerjomataram, IARC
14:00 - 15:00	5 things to know - Second round of group work
15:00 - 15:15	Coffee break
15:15 - 16:15	Setting priorities in early detection - Summary reports from the working groups
16:15 - 16:45	General discussion moderated by Dr. József Lövey, National Institute of Oncology, Medical Director
16:45 - 17:15	Closing remarks and next steps

International Agency for Research on Cancer

Co-funded by the Health Programme of the European Union

